

Products

- All of Monadnock's current standard production fasteners trace their history to a once unique customer requirement. Today's standard Monadnock fastener product line only hints of a much broader fastener capability. Current unique products include quick operating captive screws and press nuts for a new computer system, threaded inserts for railcar flooring, quick operating 1/4 turn fasteners for sandwich panel construction.
- Complete engineering/design/manufacturing capability.